CIRCULAR.

Dated 14th October 1954.

No. Fl. (B) 10630-730—C.R. 22-54-1. The Accountant-General, Mysore, has brought to notice a case of double payment of pay and allowances in respect of an officer due to non-verification of details of the Acquittance roll of the concerned month by the Drawing Officer and furnishing a non-payment certificate on the supplemental bill as a matter of course without satisfying himself regarding the correctness of the claim. Such double claims of pay on behalf of superior staff are understood to have come to notice frequently in Central Audit. The Accountant General has also reported that most of the Drawing Officers are not noting the fact of drawal of supplemental bills in the original Acquittance Rolls.

With a view to avoiding irregularities of the above kind, it is hereby directed that all supplemental claims be verified thoroughly by the Drawing Officers. Such claims should invariably be noted in the original Acquittance Rolls filled in their offices and a certificate in the following form recorded by them in all Supplemental pay bills:

"Certified that the supplemental claims preferred above have been verified with reference to the Acquittance Rolls for the concerned months filed in this office/the concerned offices and also that they have been noted against the entries shown therein as withheld or omitted."

Supplemental pay bills without the above certificate recorded therein by the Drawing Officers will not be paid at the Treasuries when presented for payment. This certificate has to be furnished in addition to the non-payment certificate prescribed in Article 172, Mysore Financial Code, Vol. I.
